

INTERNATIONAL PROGRAM
GRANTS FORUM
*for Faculty in the Humanities &
Social Sciences*

December 12, 2008
9:30am – 1:00pm
Jones Room – Woodruff Library

This forum is designed for faculty in the humanities and social sciences who are doing international work and want to learn more about developing programs and program grants. Topics to be addressed will include:

- Types of Support: Making a Match for your Idea
- How to Write Program Proposals
- How are they Read? Judging and Evaluating Program Proposals
- Program Administration I: How to Start a Program, Deal with Foundations & Find a Balance
- Program Administration II: The Nuts & Bolts of Managing a Program

Registration is required to attend this event. Please email your name, department, phone number and title (e.g., associate professor, lecturer) to Melissa Gilstrap at mgilstr@emory.edu. Please indicate in your email that you are registering for the International Program Grants Forum.

The deadline to register is December 5, 2008.

This workshop is organized by the Office of International Affairs, the Center for the Study of Public Scholarship and the Fox Center for Humanistic Inquiry.
